"BALD JACK" TESTIFIES FOR STATE

Is Given Grueling When It Comes to Cross-Examination

DENIES IMPLICATIONS

Of Becker's Counsel That He Had Led An Immoral Life—Witness Admits of Discrepancies in His Testimony.

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, May 13.—"Bald Jack" Rose, the informer, underwent the ordeal of cross-examination today at the trial of Charles Becker, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Martin T. Manton, chief of Becker's counsel, began by asking Rose why he changed his name from Rosenzweig to Rose. Rose said he had changed his name twenty-three years ago. He denied that he had ever been in jail during that time. Manton, hunched at him a long list of questions asked to bring out the life the witness had led. Rose calmly met each implication, denying that he had engaged in petty larcenies, that he had been associated with women of the streets, that he had been a "steerer" for an opium den.

Rose's acquaintance with Rosenthal, he said, dated back twenty-five years. They had been twice associated in business. He denied that they had quarreled when this business connection was dissolved. It is a contention of the defense that Rosenthal was the victim of a gambler's war. The defense introduced transcripts of yesterday's testimony and from the first trial, showing certain discrepancies in the matter of meetings between Rose and Becker. Rose admitted the discrepancies but did not explain them.

PEACE DOVE IN BRYAN'S OFFICE WAS DISTURBED

When His Confidential Clerk Engaged in First Fight With Former Russian Consul.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, May 13.—The dove of peace in the office of Secretary of State Bryan was rudely disturbed today when Jacob E. Conner, formerly consul at St. Petersburg and Frank N. Bauskett, Secretary Bryan's confidential clerk, engaged in a fist fight. Mr. Conner objected to being delayed in Secretary Bryan's ante-room while other visitors saw the secretary and engaged in an argument with Bauskett which developed into a physical encounter. The combatants were separated after Bauskett's nose was bruised and Conner's cheek was cut.

Word was received at the B. and O. offices that the crew of an extra freight train had found the body of an unknown man along the track near Barnesville. He had been struck and killed by a passing train.

Gov. Cox Took Keen Interest In Trip of Ohio Veterans to Recover the Regimental Flag

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, May 13.—The regimental banner of the Seventy-sixth O. V. I., lost at Ringgold, Ga., in November, 1863, now reposes in the Governor's office, in this city. Naturally it is attracting a great deal of attention, as it lies spread out on a large mahogany table, showing its scars and rents from the struggle through which it passed.

Secretary Burba, who accompanied the committee appointed by Governor Cox, reports that the veterans were cordially received at Jacksonville. The ex-confederates were profuse in their courtesies to the "Yanks," as they called the Ohio veterans.

"Col. Charles H. Kibler of Newark was the lion of the occasion," Mr. Burba said, "although the one-

Frank Pierson Meets Death By Being Struck By Car On Newark and Granville Line

Frank R. Pierson, aged 52, a photographer of Central City, about four miles west of Newark, who until a week ago last Thursday made his home in Central City, was instantly killed just east of Showman's by the west bound Granville car which left Newark at seven o'clock, Tuesday evening. The unfortunate man had eaten supper at his home, and left to attend to a business matter at the McDonald fruit farm near his home, and that was the last seen of him alive by his wife.

Pierson sustained a broken left leg and a deep scalp wound on the left forehead, which were the only marks upon the body, but the left side of the chest was crushed and his death must have been instantaneous.

A telephone message was sent to Clunis & Martin's undertaking firm, that a man had been struck and giving the location. Chauffeur Coyle made a very fast run with the motor ambulance, but the man was dead and he was brought to the morgue in the hospital building where corner Wyand, viewed the remains.

HONOR PAID TO DEAD HEROES OF THE NAVY

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, May 13.—The distinction never attained by the young Jewish marine, Sammy Meisenberg in life, was his today when his body wrapped in the flag for which he died at Vera Cruz was brought back to his home.

He was the only Chicagoan among those who gave their lives in the occupation of the Mexican port and not only the city but the state united to honor his memory. When the funeral car reached the LaSalle street station police were present to maintain order but the great crowd was silent and orderly. A guard of honor received the coffin and an escort of 500 men appointed by Governor Dunne and Mayor Harrison escorted it to the City Hall. The body remained on view for hours while thousands of men and women filed past. Thousands will be in the funeral procession tomorrow, including the governor, the mayor, United States Senator Lewis and Congressmen Sabath. All will make addresses at the services which will be held in Anshe Kanashel Israel synagogue.

LAY IN STATE IN INDEPENDENCE HALL

(Associated Press Telegram) Philadelphia, May 13.—Philadelphia today paid its tribute to its two sailor lads who fell at Vera Cruz. For six hours a stream of people passed through Independence Hall where lay in state the bodies of George McKenzle Poinsett, the first to lose his life in the occupation of the Mexican seaport, and Charles Allen Smith.

The bodies rested in the chamber of the first supreme court of the United States and within a few feet of where the declaration of independence was signed.

The funeral pageant that escorted the flag-covered coffins to their last resting places in local cemeteries was imposing.

MONTANA ARRIVES BEARING BODIES

(Associated Press Telegram) Boston, May 13.—Flags were half masted throughout the city in honor of the arrival of the cruiser "Montana" bearing the bodies of three New England men killed at Vera Cruz.

(Associated Press Telegram) London, May 13.—Mrs. Isabella Fyvie Mayo, 71 Scotch novelist, died here today.

armed veteran, W. C. Montgomery, and all the rest, were royally entertained. Colonel Kibler, venerable in years, sweet in disposition, gentle in bearing, seemed to draw the affections of the southern people. The young women of the confederacy took him in charge, and it was a glorious picture to see the Colonel showered with so much attentions by those attractive women. He was invited everywhere, treated with the greatest distinction, and had a bully good time, as Col. Roosevelt would say.

Colonel Kibler and the rest of the committee will probably visit Governor Cox upon their return from the South. The Governor took a keen interest in the whole affair and was so solicitous for their comfort he sent his secretary, Mr. Burba, with instructions to look after the party.

The undertakers, as soon as identification was made by Dr. Harry Postle, sent a taxicab to the Pierson home, and the widow was brought to Newark and taken to the office. The shock had completely unnerved her, and her grief was pitiable as the details of the accident, as far as they were known were explained to her.

The dead man was the son of the late George Pierson and was born near Wilkin, this county. He leaves a widow but no children, besides four brothers and three sisters living in Casey, Ills.

Motorman H. H. Huffman stated after the accident that he saw Pierson approaching on the track probably 500 yards from the car. He looked up and saw the car and stepped off the track, but when the car was within 20 or 25 feet from him he stepped on the track right in front of the car. It was of course impossible for him to stop the car, and the man was hit. He can assign no reason for Pierson stepping back on the track.

Carl Wyant was the conductor in charge.

TO ASK MELLEN OF OPERATIONS OF NEW HAVEN

Chief Counsel Folk Says He's More Valuable as Witness Than as Defendant.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, May 13.—"It is my present intention to put Charles S. Mellen on the witness stand and examine him," said Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel of the Interstate commerce commission, who is conducting the inquiry into the financial operation of the New Haven and the Billard Company.

This statement was made early today by Mr. Folk in face of the objections raised by Attorney General McReynolds that the testimony of Mr. Mellen and directors of the New Haven might render them immune from prosecution in the event such proceedings were considered necessary.

Mr. Folk made the following statement: "It is not a question of immunity but of whether the truth shall be suppressed. Mellen as a witness, telling the truth would be a thousand times more valuable to the public than Mellen could possibly be as defendant. The whole truth will be brought out if it is possible to do so no matter whom it hits."

"The great question before the American people today is to secure honesty in the management of the railway systems of the country."

"The revelations already brought to light in this investigation and the further disclosures that Mr. Mellen and other witnesses can make should be of immense value and result in legislation that will cause it to be just as grave a crime to present under the public through a corporation as it is now personally to rob an individual."

Chief Counsel Folk and Attorney General McReynolds had a conference today. Mr. Folk pointed out that the commission, in the pending proceeding was operating under a resolution of the Senate directing it to develop all possible facts concerning the financial operations of the New Haven and that, manifestly, this direction could not be carried out unless witnesses were called who were cognizant of the facts.

A final determination of the matter probably will be reached later in the day.

"Events are moving rapidly," said Mr. Folk. "We cannot say at this moment just what may happen a few hours or a day hence."

An adjournment of the hearing was taken until tomorrow.

SHOT WIFE TO DEATH THEN KILLS SELF

(Associated Press Telegram) Dayton, O., May 13.—After shooting his wife to death at their home in Fleetfoot avenue at noon today, Charles N. Shaner, aged 45, an assembler at the Dayton Malleable Iron Works, turned the revolver upon himself, and committed suicide.

The couple had quarreled for some time and Shaner is said to have gone to his wife's home, pulled a revolver and killed her, following a few words. Four children survive the couple.

FARMER GORED TO DEATH BY A BULL

(Associated Press Telegram) Kenton, O., May 13.—Hiram White, aged 48, was gored to death by a bull in the barn on his farm here last night. The bull broke out of its enclosed stall and when Mr. White went to the barn to care for horses, attacked him. White's son, Orrie, aged 21, followed his father to the barn and witnessed the killing. He drove the bull off and rescued his father's body, but only after a desperate battle in which he was himself severely hurt.

A FRAUDULENT BARGAIN

Claims W. B. Nye, While He Was a Member of the Legislature and Associated With Kirkby, Agent For Ohio Electric.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, May 13.—George B. Nye, former state representative from Pike county, admitted he had received from 20 to 25 per cent. more than actual value for his ties sold to the Ohio Electric company and the Stratford company, when placed on the witness stand here today in the trial of William Kirkby, a lobbyist, charged with bribing Nye.

"Did you have any conversation with Kirkby about the lobby cost?" asked Attorney General T. S. Hogan, in examination of Nye.

"Yes," he told me Kelley Schoepf was a "short skate," Nye answered. He said Kirkby had told him the only contribution Schoepf had made to the lobby fund was his tie contract with Nye. Nye declared that before the campaign of 1910, Kirkby had promised he would help raise a fund for Nye's re-election, and after Nye's indictment for bribery, Kirkby had promised to help raise a defense fund.

Nye testified that although his contract with the Ohio Electric company called for white oak ties, under a liberal inspection system allowed by the electric company, he sent red and black oak ties. These "seconds" were worth from 20 to 25 per cent. less than white oak ties, he declared.

He testified that during a number of conferences with Kirkby in a Columbus hotel, Kirkby had frequently reminded Nye that he, Kirkby, had secured the Cincinnati contracts for him.

OIL TO DROP BELOW DOLLAR SAY OPERATORS

(Associated Press Telegram) Lima, O., May 13.—Oil operators in the Lima fields are freely predicting that crude oils between the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, including that in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio will be below the $1 mark within sixty days. Another out of five cents was posted last night, affecting all crudes of the central west. This makes the sixth out registered by the Standard subsidiary purchasing stations within ten days. From the Kentucky fields come word to the Standard agency that operators are going on with the drill despite the declines, but in the Lima field of northern Ohio those who have wells now drilling are not pleased with the outlook.

ROCHESTER MAN HEADS SHRINERS AT ATLANTA, GA.

(Associated Press Telegram) Atlanta, Ga., May 13.—Dr. Frederick R. Smith of Damascus temple, Rochester, N. Y., today was elected imperial potentate of the imperial council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at its annual convocation here. Dr. Smith succeeds William W. Irwin of Wheeling, W. Va. He was today elevated from his previous position of deputy imperial potentate.

The selection of the next place of meeting and the election of imperial outer guard were the two important measures which were expected to come before the imperial council at its business meeting today. There has been keen rivalry between San Francisco and Seattle for the honor of entertaining the Shriner's next year, it having been agreed that the 1915 convocation would be held on the Pacific coast.

Events on the program today included an exhibition drill by all patrols at a local park, a garden party given to the visiting women of the convention by Mrs. John M. Sloan, wife of the governor of Georgia, and a dinner complimentary to the newly elected imperial potentate and members of the imperial council tonight.

DODGE IS NAMED AS SECRETARY TO U. S. DELEGATES

Washington, May 13.—Secretary Bryan announced today that H. Porcival Dodge, former minister of Panama, had been appointed secretary to the delegation which will represent the United States before the Argentine, Brazilian and Chilean mediators in the Mexican crisis who take up their duties at Niagara Falls next Monday.

Will Be Turned Over to Brazilian Minister At Mexican Capital Who Will Guarantee His Safety Until He Reaches Vera Cruz

CONCERN AROUSED OVER DISAPPEARANCE OF PARKS

Secretary of War Garrison Has Directed General Funston to Ask Mexican Commander General Maas for Information Concerning the American Soldier Who Rode Through the Mexican Lines While Deranged From Excessive Heat and Who According to Unofficial Reports is Said to Have Been Executed—If Report Proves True Serious Complications May Arise—Huerta Prepares to Make Last Stand—Said to Have Shipped Gold Abroad Ready to Leave Country.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, May 13.—With plans for the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls, Ontario, next week rapidly maturing, tension of the international conflict was relieved somewhat today by several important developments.

Assurances reached the government that no ammunition had been landed at Mexican ports from German ships, a matter that had been somewhat in doubt since the departure of the Kronprinzessin Cecilie from Puerto Mexico several days ago.

From the French legation in Mexico City came positive information that the American vice-consul, John R. Silliman, who had been held prisoner by Mexican federalists at Saltillo, was actually on his way to Mexico City under guard to be turned over to the Brazilian minister, there who would guarantee his safety until he reaches Vera Cruz. The state department had vigorously insisted that Huerta release Silliman.

Concern was aroused, however, over the reported execution by Mexican federalists of Samuel Parks, an American orderly, who disappeared from Vera Cruz several days ago while believed to have been de-ranked on account of the excessive heat. Unofficial reports persist that Parks was executed, but General Funston has communicated nothing official concerning him except his disappearance. Secretary of War Garrison today directed General Funston to ask the Mexican commander, General Maas, for information about Parks. In some quarters it was said, serious complications might arise if it proves true that Parks was executed.

Secretary Bryan made it clear today that this government would welcome a return of Mexican light-house tenders to the light on Lobos island which had been abandoned and which American naval forces seized for the benefit of navigation. This government, it was reiterated did not consider the manning of the lighthouse an act of war, but would continue to operate the light unless Huerta sends a Mexican force back there.

Another development which aroused interest in official circles was the report that Nelson O'Shaughnessy had informed President Wilson last night that General Huerta, realizing that his fall must come eventually, was preparing to make a last stand against internal enemies at Puebla, which now was being fortified against attack.

The South American mediators resumed their sessions today with plans being matured not only for the adjustment of the Lobos island and other incidents which have arisen but on the merits on the main question of how to bring about a solution of the Mexican conflict. This is recognized as the crucial question and while its final determination will be left for the conference beginning at Niagara Falls next Monday, yet it is being approached in a preliminary way to develop every avenue leading toward a possible ground of adjustment.

There is little doubt that one of the possible lines of adjustment is by means of a provisional commission, representing all the elements in the conflict, to carry forward Mexico's governmental affairs in an orderly way until an election can be held. Tentative suggestions along this line have developed strong opposition from the constitutionalist leaders but it is understood that other features yet to be developed might influence all parties to withhold action until the plan itself could be worked out by the mediators and delegates and considered by the parties.

Secretary Daniels today reiterated his determination not to utilize the naval forces at Tampico as a police guard to permit the resumption of operations in the oil district.

"We are not taking any one back to Tampico," said Secretary Daniels. "We have brought away all except those who have made up their minds not to leave." Repeated requests have been made by representatives of the oil interests to have American warships sent back up the Panuco River so work could be resumed at the oil fields.

President Wilson told a delegation of oil company representatives from the Tampico district in Mexico today that as soon as one or the other of the factions battling for control of Tampico became master of the situation he would make vigorous representations for the protection of oil.

J. H. Jackson To Be B. & O. Superintendent Succeeding C. W. Gorsuch

Charles W. Gorsuch, superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for the divisions centering in Newark will be succeeded Thursday by J. H. Jackson. This announcement was officially made at the offices this morning.

Mr. Gorsuch came to Newark with Superintendent T. J. English about twelve years ago from the Big Four, and was a dispatcher at this point until he was transferred to the Pittsburgh division, where he was made chief clerk to the general superintendent. From Pittsburgh he was sent to Baltimore and acted as chief clerk to the general superintendent of transportation, after which he became assistant superintendent at Pittsburgh, remaining in this capacity for eighteen months, when on November 1, 1912, he came back to Newark as superintendent, to succeed M. H. Cahill, who went to Buffalo as superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western.

It was rumored that Mr. Gorsuch will be transferred from Newark to Baltimore.

While in Newark as superintendent, Mr. Gorsuch was a man held in the highest respect and esteem by those whose business dealings rendered daily communication with him necessary, and he will carry with him to the fullest extent the best wishes of all connected with the Newark offices for continued success in his future field of operation.

Mr. Jackson, who assumes his duties tomorrow, is a westerner in railroad ideas and experience, having come to the B. and O. from the Frisco lines, several months ago, during which time he has been supervisor of transportation at Wheeling. Mr. Jackson will live in Newark, his wife and family at present being in the south.

Mr. Gorsuch, who lives at the corner of Church and Seventh streets, had intended to remove to one of the Wyoming Terrace apartment houses in the near future, and of course will not definitely change his plans until later, in regard to his future home.

C. F. D., Johnston—We appreciate your expression. "Permit me to voice my appreciation of the excellent manner in which the contest has been carried on." In answer to your inquiry "why keep us in suspense so long by printing a few answers a day?" Will say that to print all of the pictures and the answers in one issue would require about 6 pages, unless new pictures of small size were made. In many contests one or two answers are printed daily but it is our intention to publish about 10 answers daily for seven days. The number may be more or less according to the demand upon space.

H. A. E., Columbus—As repeatedly stated, the contestant is asked to name a book that in his judgment answers the picture. The Advocate catalogue contains about 5,000 names of books. SAYS SULPHUR IS SURE TO RELIEVE ITCHING ECZEMA

Get an ounce of bold-sulphur cream and heal skin eruptions right up.

Any breaking out or irritation on the face, arms, legs or body when accompanied by itching, or when the skin is dry and feverish, can be readily overcome by applying a little bold-sulphur cream, says a noted dermatologist.

He informs us that bold-sulphur instantly allays the angry itching and irritation and soothes and heals the Eczema right up leaving the skin clear and smooth. Bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position for many years in the treatment of cutaneous disorders because of its parasite-destroying property. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in treating the irritable and inflammatory skin affections. While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subdue the itching irritation and drive the Eczema away and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Those troubled should obtain at any pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur cream which is applied to the affected parts in the same manner as an ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded, particularly in itching Eczema, proves very welcome.

You may not be willing to spend the necessary time to draw them when they can be obtained at that price.

CASE ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION IN MEDICAL WORLD

The case of William H. Reynolds, who has been pronounced cured by the famous Mayo brothers of Rochester, Minn., and his attending physician in Newark, Dr. C. F. Legge, has attracted much attention in the medical world, as it is a very unusual case, and an exceptionally remarkable one in the cure effected.

Dr. W. H. Lewis of the famous Mayo hospital of Rochester is in the city today. He brought with him x-ray photographs of the tumor growth on the lungs of Mr. Reynolds, both before and after the cure and it has been shown to a number of local physicians. Great praise has been given Dr. Legge for the manner in which the toxin treatments were administered and today the lungs of Mr. Reynolds are absolutely normal. The case will probably go down in medical history as one of the rare cases of unusual cures. Dr. Lewis, while in Newark is also visiting relatives here. He is connected with the Mayo institute in the department of physical diagnosis.

MARINES WERE WELL BEHAVED AT VERA CRUZ

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, May 13.—Secretary Daniels announced proudly today that he had Admiral Fletcher's word for it that out of the 6,000 American sailors and marines who were landed at Vera Cruz when that city was seized not one was at any time found drunk or under the influence of liquor. The Secretary agrees with Admiral Fletcher that this makes a new record for the navy and in fact for any navy.

"The order will go into effect July 1," replied Secretary Daniels firmly to an inquiry as to whether the President disapproved of his plan to amend the naval regulations so as to prohibit the bringing of any intoxicating liquor aboard ship or into the naval reservation.

RAYMOND RODGERS DIES SUDDENLY AT COSHOCTON

As a great shock to his many friends in Newark came the word today from Coshocton that Raymond Rodgers of that city had died very suddenly at his home Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Rodgers, aged 26, complained on Tuesday evening of a violent headache. He took a headache tablet and lying down soon fell asleep. During the night his wife was awakened by his restlessness and found him throwing one leg and arm violently. She tried to arouse him and failing, found that he was unconscious. She called in a physician and later two others were summoned, who worked with him during the entire night. The examination showed that one side was completely paralyzed. He never regained consciousness and death came at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The deceased leaves a wife, who is a sister of Senator W. E. Haas, of Delaware, O., and two children, Dorothy and Mary Ellen. Also a mother and nine brothers and sisters.

Mr. Rodgers was a man of a personality that won him many friends, and he had a large circle of friends in Newark. He has been the guest of these friends in Newark on numerous occasions, and the announcement of his death came as a great shock. He was a son of the late James Rodgers of Coshocton. The family is a prominent one and had large business holdings in that city.

This time Jimmy and a colored lad, Walter Coleman, aged 8, are charged with having taken a ham from Otto Steinmeyer's meat market smokehouse, in Franklin street. The boys are not charged with theft, but Steinmeyer says they placed the ham in a barrel and returned for it but became frightened and left the yard. Judge Hunter investigated the case after Officer Dwyer had brought the lads in Wednesday.

SPRING GARMENT SALE AT DAVIES

A valuable prize that is to be awarded at the conclusion of the Advocate's Booklovers' contest, is the $25.00 lady's suit at T. L. Davies Dry Goods store. The woman who receives this handsome garment can well feel rewarded for her time and efforts in solving the contest pictures.

The Davies' store are now in the midst of their Spring Garment sale and judging by the crowds that are in daily attendance, we would venture to say that the majority of women appreciate such a timely event to secure the highest character of outer garments at a mere fraction of their real value. One hardly expects any great reduction in prices before July, so we can readily account for the quick response to this sale, especially when it is conducted by a firm with the integrity and honest business methods that the Davies store is conducted upon.

In connection with the garment sale, special prices are also holding sway in the piece goods departments. For instance all the newest weaves in dress-goods, silks and fancy wash goods are being quoted at prices considerably under the market value. This will come as a great boon to those who still have their summer sewing to do.

The woman who wants her dollars to do extra duty can do no better than to go to Davies. It's quite an item to anyone to buy seasonable up-to-date merchandise at prices that mean a genuine saving. Whether you buy or just look we know you will receive the same courteous attention.

A woman to be pretty must have pretty hair. There is a subtle charm about beautiful hair that lends more to personal adornment than all of the skill of all of the "beauty doctors" combined. The most cultured ladies in every community use Newbro's Herpicide; and when you see a head of hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, it is a fairly good indication that Newbro's Herpicide has been used.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

CAREFULLY TREAT CHILDREN'S COLDS

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble in later life. On the other hand it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors. The ideal way to avoid colds is to keep plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and at the first sign of trouble apply Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Cream and Pneumonia Salve over the throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases antiseptic vapors that are inhaled all night long, opening the air passages and healing the inflamed membrane. In addition Vick's is absorbed through the skin taking out the soreness and tightness. Vick's contains no harmful drugs whatever. At druggists—25c, 50c, and $1.00.

Persistence may gain a jewel. The darker the night the brighter the light.

A MEMBERSHIP IN "OLD HOME", ONE OF PRIZES

One of the prizes in the Advocate Booklovers' contest is a paid-up membership in the Old Home Building Association's Christmas Money Club. This means that one of the contestants will get a nice little sum of "easy" Christmas money—$25.52—and that will help a lot just at the season of the year when money is very handy to everyone.

The "Old Home" of which Mr. E. M. Baugher is president and Mr. C. C. McGruder is secretary, is one of Newark's solid financial institutions.

It is commonly called the "Old Home" because it is this institution that has helped thousands of Newark people to own their own homes. This building association, which pays four per cent on deposits recently inaugurated a Christmas Money Club, the plan being to accept deposits beginning at 2 cents the first week, 4 the second and so on, or beginning at 98c, 96 the second week and so on down, making the deposit either larger or smaller each week as desired. This money will be returned to the depositor just before Christmas and for that reason depositors are called members of the Christmas Money club. The proposition proved to be very popular and the club is now immense. You can still enter the Booklovers' Contest. The coupons and catalogue can be secured until 6 p. m., May 18, which gives you time to send in your solutions.

Clarifying For Ashbrook

(Mt. Vernon Banner.)

The withdrawal of Judge Brucker of Mansfield as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman in this district, greatly simplifies things political and clears the atmosphere.

Judge Brucker was really the only rival of Congressman Ashbrook for the nomination who was worth considering in the running. Brucker has considerable organizing ability and a faculty of attaching influential men to himself, and consequently was prepared to put up a fight worthy of his reputation as a resourceful politician.

Whatever may be Judge Brucker's real reasons for retiring from the race, the fact remains that the predominating sentiment for Congressman Ashbrook for re-nomination is so strong over the district that it is recognized by every one of political discernment; and in a primary system for making nominations, under which the individual party voters are the ones who have the say in the matter, it is well to heed the well-organized demand for Ashbrook.

The retirement of Brucker leaves no opposition to Ashbrook that may be accounted opposition, and it is altogether probable that what little there is will soon entirely disappear, and that the other gentlemen who have been more or less "prominently mentioned" in connection with the honor and who may have nurtured an ambition to go to Washington, will follow the good example set by Judge Brucker and not enter the primaries of the district, thus leaving the nomination to go to Congressman Ashbrook unanimously—the really logical solution of the situation.

Ashbrook's reputation as a congressman who does things for his constituents and who gets results, has given him a standing with the people that counts with winning force when the people have the chance of deciding nominations, as they do under the primary system, and in making choice at the election.

The situation in the Seventeenth district is clarifying rapidly in Congressman Ashbrook's favor.

The Back Yard.

At a time some years ago, when a craze for angular houses was spreading over the land, some writer remarked that all the stylish houses had Queen Anne fronts and Mary Ann back yards. The craze referred to has passed, but the majority of people still keep back yards full of disorder.

Most people's back yards are more visible and exposed than they think. Even in places where houses stand closely together, all the neighbors can see the slovenly display of ashes and other household refuse. It does not take much effort to keep a back yard looking shipshape. It would only take a minute longer to put litter in some receptacle in the shed or cellar where it belongs. Ash-heaps in a back yard are a needless eye-sore. People that keep poultry will find that the chicken-house would wear longer if a little time were spent once in a few years in painting.

All this care costs little, and it adds to the appearance of a whole neighborhood. If you want to sell property, you will have to discount hundreds of dollars for the bad impression given by disorder.

Wisdom from Washington

Washington, May 13. — [Special].—Many members of congress are much disturbed on account of the agitation which has followed the action of the judiciary committee in reporting the prohibition and woman suffrage amendments. It is still something of a mystery why the judiciary committee took that action, but it may be explained that the members became weary of the constant pressure that was put upon them.

Every member was beset by prohibitionists to take some action which would afford the house an opportunity to pass upon the Hobson resolution. The woman suffragists were equally insistent that their measure should not be smothered.

The judiciary committee became tired of being called the "graveyard" of all legislation of this character, and the members determined to relieve themselves individually of the pressure and let it spread over the entire house.

Keeping Them Together.

It is altogether likely that in case the committee on rules of the house shall decide to bring in a rule allowing the house to consider and vote upon the prohibition resolution, that a similar action will have to be taken on the suffrage resolution. The suffragists have been strong enough to keep their measure abreast of the prohibition resolution and the prohibitionists have been so earnest that they have been willing to join hands with the suffragists in order to promote federal action on their measure.

The Democratic caucus has decided against considering woman suffrage legislation at this session, and the committee on rules has followed the instructions of the caucus and refused to report any measure relating to suffrage. But the caucus has taken no such action regarding prohibition and the committee on rules will be at liberty to provide a day for considering prohibition. But they will not be able to do that without a strong fight on the part of the suffragists.

Prohibition Is Strong.

That prohibition has strong support in the house of representatives there can be no question. A few years ago when a drastic measure controlling liquor dealing was before the house, it took the finest kind of work and fine manipulation to prevent a direct vote in favor of prohibition for the District of Columbia, and if such a vote had been taken it was almost sure that it would have carried in the house of representatives and probably in the senate.

Of course national prohibition is another thing, and members would hesitate to vote for a national measure, although they would be willing to try it on the city of Washington. Besides, it requires a two-thirds vote to pass the Hobson resolution, and it is doubtful if any such majority could be obtained.

Controlled His Emotions.

Senator Stone of Missouri has just concluded an elaborate argument in favor of the repeal of free tolls, during which he had discussed at considerable length the Democratic platform. He was followed briefly by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, an old time antagonist, who said, "I know the senator will pardon me if I say that his discussion in regard to the Democratic platform leaves my emotions personal as well within control." Lodge is a sedate individual, but occasionally he delves deep and refutes the idea that he is without a sense of humor.

Lane Could Not See It.

During discussion of the agricultural appropriation bill southern men made an earnest plea for the expenditure of money to encourage certain forms of agriculture in the south that have heretofore been neglected. Senator Ransdell of Louisiana had been making an argument showing that the farmers of the south were now beginning to raise products which heretofore they had purchased in the north and west.

Then Senator Lane of Oregon broke in, saying: "We are being asked to furnish the people of the south money with which to put ourselves out of business. They are going to use the money to raise all these things which they now buy of us. I do not see anything profitable in that kind of a trade." "I thought the senator was a patriot," was the comment of Ransdell.

Walls of Sing Sing Prison Should Be Razed; It Is Nothing but a College of Crime

By Bishop DAVID H. GREER of Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York

© By American Press Association.

SING SING SHOULD BE ABOLISHED, AND FOR THE SAKE OF SOCIETY ITS WALLS SHOULD BE RAZED. AS A SUBSTITUTE SUCH PRISONS AS WE HAVE AT GREAT MEADOWS, WHERE WE AIM TO PUNISH, BUT AS WELL TO REFORM, SHOULD BE BUILT. I RECENTLY WENT TO SING SING. I WAS LOCKED FOR A FEW MINUTES IN ONE OF THE CELLS. THEY ARE DARK, DAMP AND IN EVERY WAY DEPRESSING, WITH NO SANITATION AT ALL EXCEPT A BUCKET. THEY ARE MENTALLY, MORALLY, PHYSICALLY AND FROM EVERY POINT OF VIEW SUCH A PLACE YOU WOULD NOT PUT YOUR DOG IN. IF YOU DID, HE WOULD GO MAD.

Sing Sing prison is a college of crime. IT BREEDS CRIME IN THE COMMUNITY. It is not only a college of crime; it is a pest house. It breeds pestilence in the community. It is not only criminal on the part of the community for itself; it is a STUPID BLUNDER ON THE PART OF THE COMMUNITY AGAINST ITSELF. If it be true that we have a criminal class incapable of reform the state is responsible for it in no little measure through the maintenance of such places as this.

Every Citizen Should Become a Member of the Newark Board of Trade

At no time since the Board of Trade executive committee began work under the revised constitution, which limits the range of activities to which the energies of that body shall be devoted, to the industrial and commercial development of the city, has there been any adverse criticism that could be taken seriously, as based upon logical grounds. It is this singleness of purpose that has made the plan of campaign popular, as it is now being conducted by committees soliciting contributions to the factory fund.

The Board of Trade as now organized is a body that should be the concrete representation of a civic pride, a sentiment of eagerness to co-operate with any plan suggested to accomplish Newark's betterment along the lines laid down, that should be found among the citizenship as a whole, as well as in the individuals making up the body politic.

Such an attitude is a healthful sign of a proper interest in the community welfare, but reach its highest efficiency it must be organized toward the desired end.

The commercial body of our city is the place to put the individual desire for Newark's further growth and prosperity, and the Board of Trade is the right place, the place where every proposed phase of activity toward a definite purpose, can be amalgamated into a concerted effort that will bring success to any project undertaken.

Every citizen of Newark should belong to the Board of Trade. Here he can mingle with other men, interchange ideas and opinions with mutual profit and become a part of any movement that has Newark's best interests at the bottom.

The dues are only $5 per year, and it is only from these membership dues that the actual and necessary current expenses of the Board can be met. The factory fund being raised is separate and distant, and cannot be touched for this or any other purpose than the one of inducing new industries to locate in Newark.

Think over the matter seriously and it is almost certain that you will see it to be your duty to become a member of the Board of Trade at once.

RUN-DOWN FOR YEARS

Strength Restored by Vinol.

Strength and even life itself depends upon nourishment and proper assimilation of food, and unless digestion is good the whole body suffers.

Mrs. C. W. Busby of Mountville, W. Va., says: "For years I was in a weakened, run-down condition, and I could not find anything that would help me. Vinol was recommended and I tried it. Before I finished the first bottle I was better. I continued its use and am as well as ever. I have gotten several neighbors to take Vinol with the same result."

We know the great power of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, in building up all weakened, run-down persons, and for chronic coughs, colds and pulmonary trouble, and that is why we guarantee to return your money if it does not help you. The Wind.

The wind comes slinging from the south, as hot as though 'twere fried, suggestive of a furnace mouth, and blazing coal inside. And now the wheat will die the death, the corn will say goodbye; for in that fierce and fiery breath all growing things must die. The wind comes nosing from the north, to see what it may see, and when that sort of wind comes forth, I murmur, "Hully chee! 'Twill kill the blossoms on the trees, the garden sass must go; when nature trots out such a breeze, the poor man has no show. The wind comes walling from the east, and floods will soon appear; I hoped to see my store increased in goodly shape this year, but endless rains will spoil the oats, and drown the geese and ducks, and give the milldew to the goats, and I'll lose many bucks." Thus speaks the kicker, and his wail is rising every day; he's sure that everything will fail, that grief is on the way. If he were farming Canaan's land, with milk and honey near, he still would kick to beat the band, and shed the briny tear.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before Breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with rich food which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

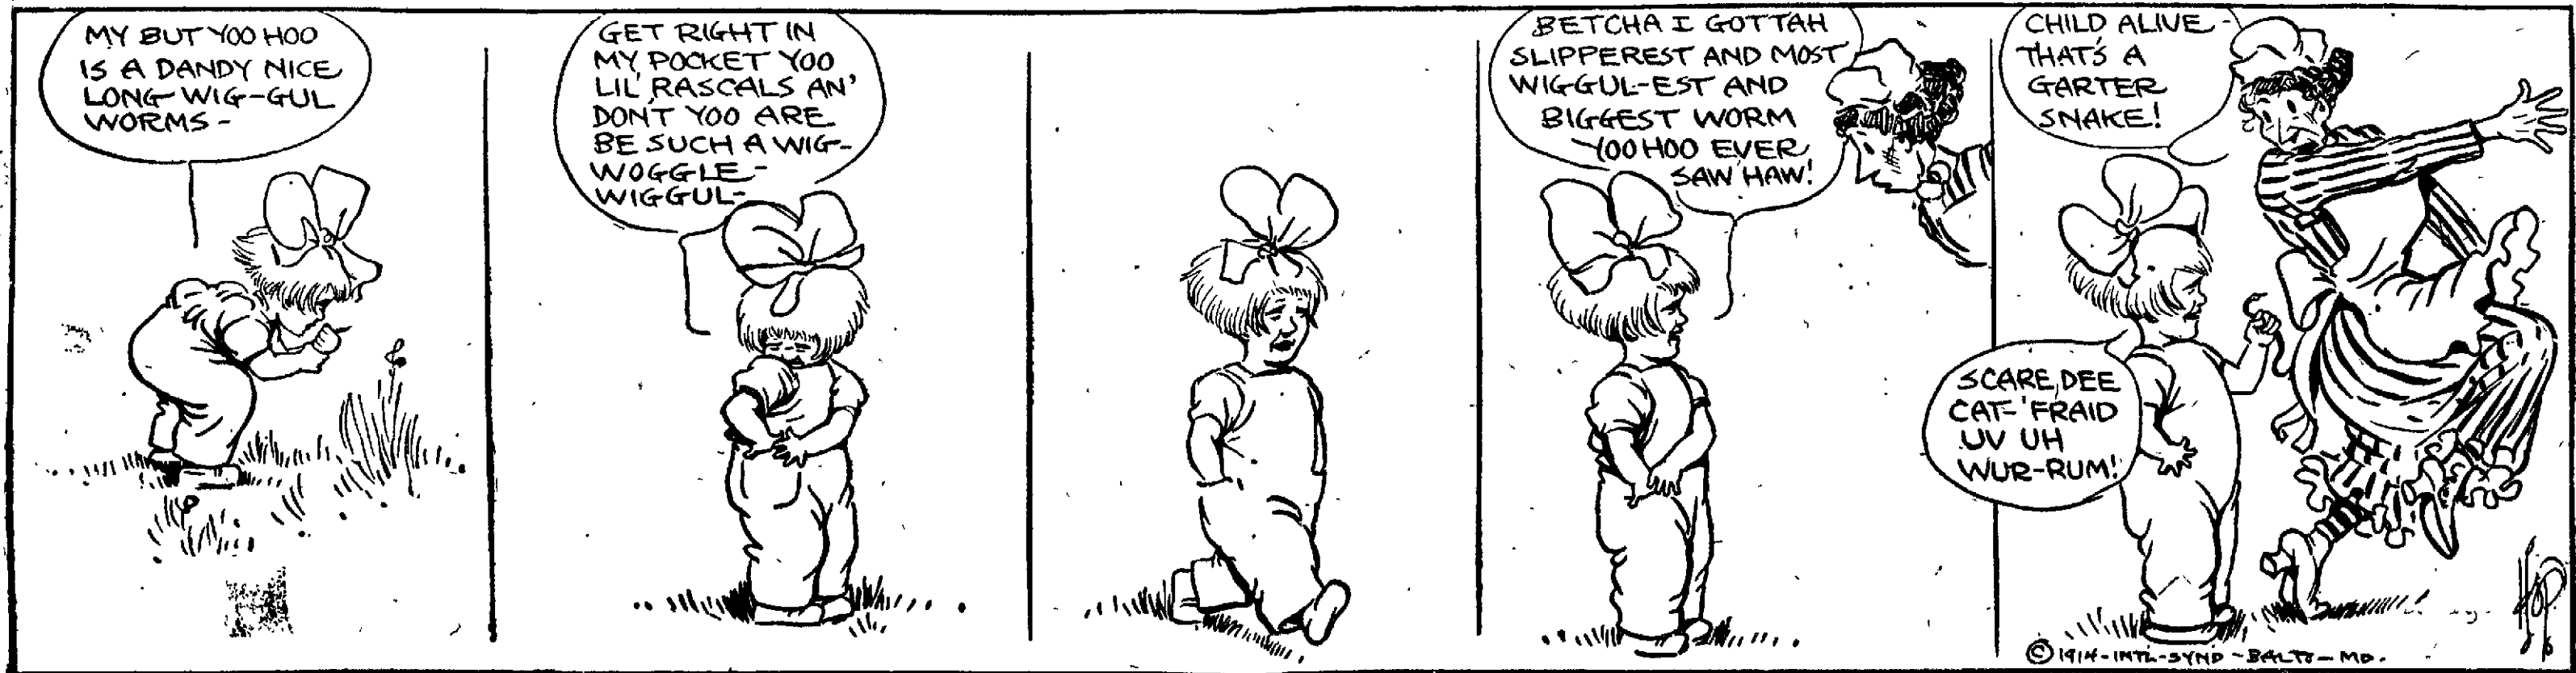

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid on stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in a mistake by having a good kidney every home, because nobody can make flushing any time.

English Women's Beautiful Complexions

There is no nation in which the women live as sanely as the English and there is no nation in which the skins are as fair and clear. Under perfect natural conditions, well balanced life would guarantee a beautiful and healthy skin. But the ordinary social and economic American life of today forces the system to furnish so much vital force for action that nerves, eyes and complexions suffer. In addition to this strain many women further abuse their skin by covering it with pore-clogging powder instead of doing the wise thing—using a lotion which protects and smoothes without choking the pores. The reason complexions suffer so much in summer is because powder does not offer sufficient protection against the hot sun. Plain sursumax lotion not only safeguards the skin from the elements, but in itself is a beautifier of great worth. To prepare this lotion at home, dissolve 4 ounces sursumax from drugists in 1/2 pint water (or witch hazel) and add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. This applied to the skin becomes invisible and imparts a velvety softness and daintiness to a rough, faded skin, saving that shiny, oily appearance, and its use will insure a clear, lovely complexion. "Inexcusable aggression" was the opinion of the Mexican war expressed by President Woodrow Wilson in his book, "A History of the American People." President Wilson because he had not consulted Congress before he ordered Gen. Taylor forward to the Rio Grande and brought this momentous matter to a head, though it had been in session when the order was issued. The historian Wilson added: "He had taken full responsibility for that upon himself. War, indeed, existed—but by whose act Congress was no longer at liberty to inquire."

The American army of invasion, the President wrote, fought men as brave as themselves, a subtle, spirited race, tenacious to the last of all that it could hold. In his history the President referred to the boundary disputes of the United States with Great Britain, but he adds: "The Texas boundaries were another matter. Here the government dealt with a rival and neighbor, the whole compromise was necessary." He related how the United States "seized not merely the disputed territory which Texas claimed, but also the whole country of the Pacific slope beyond, from Oregon to the Gila river, to which the United States could have no conceivable right except that of conquest."

The 700,000 square miles of Mexican territory seized by the United States, the Washington government agreed to pay Mexico $15,000,000, or a little over twenty cents per square mile. But that sum did not represent the entire cost of the acquired territory. Over $100,000,000 was expended to carry on the conflict, and other incidental expenses of the war cost about a third more. The loss of American lives was about 15,000, of whom a third were killed in battle and the remainder succumbed to disease. The death roll of the Mexicans, although not exactly known, probably numbered about 40,000.

President Polk, who settled the Oregon boundary dispute with England by compromise and the Texas boundary controversy by war, was succeeded as President by General Zachary Taylor, whose victories over the Mexicans had made him a popular hero.

Today We Celebrate

Sixty-eight years ago today, May 13, 1846, the United States formally declared war against Mexico, and congress authorized President James Knox Polk to raise 50,000 men and $10,000,000 to carry on the conflict. It was only after a bitter and acrimonious debate, during which the war policy of the President was violently denounced, that Congress took this action.

A boundary dispute between Mexico and Texas was the cause of this appeal to force, although the immediate cause was the invasion of Texas by a Mexican army and the capture of a small body of American troops. The news of this ambush reached Washington on the 11th of May, when President Polk told Congress that "Mexico has passed the boundaries of the United States" and "shed blood upon American soil." The President added, "War exists, and exists by the act of Mexico herself." As a matter of fact, the Mexicans had invaded only the disputed territory, which was claimed by both countries. Five days before Congress determined to support the President's policy and issued a formal declaration, the conflict had actually commenced with the battle of Palo Alto, in which the American army of Gen. Zachary Taylor was completely victorious. By the thirteenth the Mexicans had been driven out of the disputed territory and across the Rio Grande, although, in the absence of telegraphs, Congress had no knowledge of that fact.

"Inexcusable aggression" was the opinion of the Mexican war expressed by President Woodrow Wilson in his book, "A History of the American People." President Wilson because he had not consulted Congress before he ordered Gen. Taylor forward to the Rio Grande and brought this momentous matter to a head, though it had been in session when the order was issued. The historian Wilson added: "He had taken full responsibility for that upon himself. War, indeed, existed—but by whose act Congress was no longer at liberty to inquire."

The American army of invasion, the President wrote, fought men as brave as themselves, a subtle, spirited race, tenacious to the last of all that it could hold. In his history the President referred to the boundary disputes of the United States with Great Britain, but he adds: "The Texas boundaries were another matter. Here the government dealt with a rival and neighbor, the whole compromise was necessary." He related how the United States "seized not merely the disputed territory which Texas claimed, but also the whole country of the Pacific slope beyond, from Oregon to the Gila river, to which the United States could have no conceivable right except that of conquest."

The 700,000 square miles of Mexican territory seized by the United States, the Washington government agreed to pay Mexico $15,000,000, or a little over twenty cents per square mile. But that sum did not represent the entire cost of the acquired territory. Over $100,000,000 was expended to carry on the conflict, and other incidental expenses of the war cost about a third more. The loss of American lives was about 15,000, of whom a third were killed in battle and the remainder succumbed to disease. The death roll of the Mexicans, although not exactly known, probably numbered about 40,000.

President Polk, who settled the Oregon boundary dispute with England by compromise and the Texas boundary controversy by war, was succeeded as President by General Zachary Taylor, whose victories over the Mexicans had made him a popular hero.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

"He's so handsome," sighed the Frivolous Young Thing. "He has such wonderful eyes and his nose is like a Greek god's."

"Did you ever see a Greek god?" asked the Common-sense Woman.

"No, of course not. There is no such thing. But then—"

"And there is no such person as the one you are imagining, in connection with these wonderful eyes and the nose of a god," interrupted the Common-sense Woman.

"I never thought of associating them," objected the Frivolous Young Thing. "Why! the idea! Of course I know the difference."

"Perhaps you think you do," said the Common-sense Woman. "This handsome man is, I presume, a very fine fellow."

"Oh, he's adorable," sighed the Frivolous Young Thing. "Honorable and chivalrous and all that."

"You know him well, then, do you?"

"Oh, no, I scarcely know him at all. But one can see at a glance that he is all that is fine."

"That's just the point," said the Common-sense Woman. "You are judging his soul by his nose. And yet some of the finest men the world knows have had the worst noses, and some, I daresay, have been squint-eyed; whereas the soul of a man with a Greek-god nose and languorous eyes is often not worth mentioning. If you foolish girls would consider souls—not noses, when bestowing your affections, how much better off you would be."

"But it's awful to have to look at an ugly nose across the dining table all your life," pouted the Frivolous Young Thing.

"It's worse to look at an ugly soul," replied the Common-sense Woman. "A soul can do more to make you unhappy than a nose can. I know a young girl who is going to wreck her life, right in this very matter. There's a fine fellow in love with her, honest, true as steel, manly in every way. You know that that fellow, if he lives to be a hundred, will never do anything to his discredit. And he worships her. I think he would willingly give his life for her, if by so doing he could be of service to her. But he has none of the social graces. He's a diamond in the rough. But he doesn't shine yet, except for those fine qualities older heads can see. The other man in the case is a social favorite. He can sing a song to perfection, tell a story to make his hearers' sides ache with laughter, dance, twang a guitar. But he's shallow, untrustworthy, selfish, and in one sense, a grafter, for he'll work everybody he can for his personal ends. One can pretty well guess what his record will be by the time he is thirty, and after that, one probably wouldn't want to hear about it. Yet she is fascinated by the glitter of his shallow social graces and will probably go forward to a most unhappy future as his wife. It is another case of seeing the shell and not the soul."

"The Frivolous Young Thing looked a trifle serious. "Why can't shells and souls correspond?" she asked wistfully.

"Perhaps if you looked with the mind's eye, you could see that they do," said the Common-sense Woman. "Instead of seeing only the color of the eyes, you would then see the expression and the significant lines about them. Instead of seeing only the color of the lips, you would see the tell-tale droop, or the arrogant arch, or the cruelty or the selfishness; or, on the other hand, the cheerfulness or firmness or good nature. All these qualities are there, as well as the mere physical form and color. Look again at your Greek-god man, dear, and see what else is there besides the color of his eyes and the shape of his nose."

"I will," sighed the Frivolous Young Thing. "But I should hate to find a lot of defects. He's so handsome."

"You may acquire the ability to see and enjoy a finer kind of beauty than the Greek-god sort," cheered the Common-sense Woman.

ORGANIZING A REGIMENT OF PYTHIANS

Hon. Saml. A. Hoskins, Grand Chancellor of the Order of Knights of Pythias of Ohio, has authorized Geo. B. Donavin, Grand Master of Exchequer, and Colonel, Ohio National Guard (retired), to recruit a regiment of 1300 experienced officers and men from among the 85,000 Knights in Ohio, and from the sons of Pythias not quite of age, to volunteer service for war as U. S. Volunteers. The local Lodge of the Order has enthusiastically taken the matter up, and its quota will be soon enrolled. The Grand Chancellor requires that all recruits shall be able bodied and experienced either in military drill, or in the expert use of the rifle or shot gun. During the formative period, the regiment will be known as "THE FIRST OHIO PYTHIAN INFANTRY."

TRY." Those who are eligible to enrollment are as follows:

A—Members of the Knights of Pythias, between the ages of 21 and 45 years, able bodied, and with some experience in military drill, either in the U. S. Army, Navy or Marine Corps, in the National Guard, in College Battalions, in the Military Department of the Order, and those who have excelled in Lodge Team Drill; and also those members who may have had no drill, but who can shoot well with rifle or shot gun.

B—Sons of Knights of Pythias who are 18, 19 or 20 years of age, who announce their intention of applying for membership in the Order, when they shall have reached the prescribed age of 21 years, provided they have had some drill—or can shoot well—or have the natural qualification of a soldier.

C—Desirable men who have had military experience, as defined in Par. A, and who are not Knights of Pythias, may sign the enrollment blank, after having first signed an application blank for the Ranks of Knighthood—it being understood that the work will be given them at the earliest opportunity, that they may become members of the Order before the regiment shall have been fully organized.

The committee here is Captain Eugene Wollinsky of Licking Company to whom all interested are referred. Enrollment will cease on the 31st day of May.

THE REINDEER CARNIVAL WILL BE GALA EVENT

Reindeer week in Newark will be a week of real events, according to plans of the local branch of the order. Mack's united shows, with ten big paid attractions and a big aggregation of new and attractive concessions, with "Buckskin Ben's" Wild west, and two splendid concert bands, will offer the entertainment.

Beginning with sacred concerts in the public square Sunday, the bands will give free concerts every noon and night down town. Pollotti's big Italian band will play the Sunday afternoon concert if the company arrives here in time from Columbus, and Buckskin Ben's cowboy concert band will play the Sunday night program, which is assured. It is likely the concerts will be given on the courthouse steps.

A committee from the Reindeer lodge here visited the shows in Columbus, Tuesday night, and found a collection of splendid attractions, clean, moral and instructive. Gambling devices and other objectionable features were not in evidence and will not be allowed here. The big shows will move here probably over the B. & O. Sunday and will be transported to the Jefferson street grounds, near the intersection of Main and Eleventh streets.

General directing committees will be appointed for the week at the meeting of the Order of Reindeer to be held tonight.

TELEPHONE COMPANY ORDERS NEW SUPPLIES SHIPPED BY EXPRESS

After making a thorough investigation of the interior of the stables and ware rooms of the Automatic Telephone company, gutted by fire Tuesday afternoon, officials of the company ordered a new supply of materials, instruments, etc., shipped by express from Chicago and Manager Hollander states that the installation crew will be ready to continue their work of putting in new telephones Thursday afternoon at the latest.

The ruined stock was left in the building undisturbed, pending the arrival of the insurance adjusters who will reach the city some time Thursday. It is believed there will be little salvage among the vast amount of materials carried in the building. The damage is estimated at $5,000 and is fully covered by insurance.

The heat was so intense in the rear room on the ground floor that the glass wind shield in the automobile truck, used by the construction gang, was melted from its frame.

The telephone company has arranged for temporary quarters in a stable, a few doors east of the building damaged by Tuesday's blaze.

HUERTA PLANS TO LEAVE THE CAPITAL SOON

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 13.—That General Huerta, preparing for a crisis in his dictatorship has long been planning to leave Mexico City with his troops and make a last stand at Puebla, midway between Mexico City and Vera Cruz was understood today to have been told President Wilson last night by Nelson O'Shaughnessy, former charge of the American embassy in the Mexican capital.

The president, it is said, was informed that Huerta had picked Puebla for his last refuge in case rebel assaults got too close to Mexico City, and that late developments in the revolution had caused him already to begin fortifying and provisioning Puebla.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy is said to have told the president that Huerta had no intention of resigning, but that the Mexican dictator realized that his regime could not stand long. At Puebla, according to plans said to have been determined upon months ago he would fight rather than consent to elimination.

Realizing that he eventually must be deposed Huerta, it is said, desires to acquire as much glory as possible before the inevitable happens.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy is said further to have told the president that the number of troops which Huerta has at his command is greatly exaggerated and that as a matter of fact they number only 4,000 to 6,000 men. Neither Zapata nor Villa would have any great difficulty in taking the city, it is understood to be the view Mr. O'Shaughnessy expressed.

His information is along the line of other reports reaching the government within the last few weeks. Further information from these sources is that Huerta has been shipping gold abroad in contemplation of his ultimate exile.

BELIEVE HUERTA MUST SOON FACE A GRAVE CRISIS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Vera Cruz, May 13.—General Funston need fear no trouble along his outer lines if a letter sent into the city last night by General Rubio Navarrete, in command of the advance positions of the Mexicans, is a true indication of the Mexicans attitude.

General Navarrete addressed the editor of a local newspaper, Los Sucesos, regarding the reported movement by his forces against Vera Cruz. "I beg that you deny this news," said General Navarrete, "since in accordance with orders which we have received all offensive movements have been stopped while the armistice lasts."

General Navarrete's assurances although not reaching the American headquarters in official form, have served to convince General Funston that there is no intention to precipitate trouble at this quarter.

There does exist here, however, a vague apprehension of important developments at the capital. This is not traceable to any specific information and in no quarter could there be found any tangible evidence on which to base this theory. Staff officers and many away from headquarters, however appear convinced that a crisis within a few days.

It appears improbable that the rebels will not be in a position to attack the capital for many days and perhaps weeks but there is a growing feeling of unrest among the residents, and a few high officers in the army now stationed at Mexico City are said to have been manifesting signs of unwillingness to continue supporting a man whom they regard as already defeated and in whose policy they do not fully agree.

In view of the undeniable fact that sharp developments at the capital may be of a character to increase the danger of Americans there, the American consul here has renewed his efforts to get out, as soon as possible, as many as he can. A train due today is reported to have a considerable number of Americans aboard.

MEXICANS CELEBRATE VICTORY OVER REBELS.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Mexico City, May 13.—Thousands of persons took part in a demonstration yesterday in front of Provisional Huerta's residence in celebration of the second anniversary of the battle of Canejos, where Huerta, leading the federal troops, defeated Pascual Orozco's rebel forces.

General Huerta appeared on the balcony of his home and shook hands with many of the demonstrators.

Dr. L. C. Sparks' Resignation Would Not Be Considered By Church's Official Board

It was in no uncertain manner that the proposed resignation of Dr. L. C. Sparks, as pastor of the First Methodist church, and minister to its congregation, was received by the official board of the church at a meeting held Tuesday night at which there was a large attendance, probably forty being present. The board absolutely, definitely and unanimously refused to consider the proposition under the present circumstances.

Dr. Sparks stated his position clearly and concisely. He had been here continuously for a period of twelve years. The church had grown to large proportions, there now being a membership of over 1800. A new church had been built and was rapidly being paid for. The financial condition was now such, that even without special effort, in the natural evolution of affairs every obligation could be promptly met, or even anticipated. The relationship between pastor and people was harmonious, no factions existed, a spirit of co-operation in the great work of the church was manifest and has been at all times so that the First Methodist church has become in reality a great power in the community for all good.

In all this however, the labors of the pastor have become manifested and onerous, to such an extent that Dr. Sparks believed that the strain upon his mental and nervous system was becoming too great. He was of the opinion that this time was the proper one for him to step aside, and allow the work to be taken up by some one else after the end of the present conference year.

Dr. Sparks suggested the appointment of a committee to consider this matter and arrange for his successor. By a standing vote the Board unanimously refused to take this action or to consider Dr. Sparks' resignation. But it was decided that the work was too arduous to be borne by him alone and that it was advisable and necessary to employ an assistant to aid the pastoral work, and with this understanding the matter was left in statu quo.

Dr. Sparks deeply appreciates the generous sentiment that actuated the members of the board in their action toward lightening his work, as well as the unanimous expression of the satisfaction with his efforts in the past, and the kindly feeling of personal regard in which he is held.

KING'S DAUGHTERS IN GROUP MEETING AT ZANESVILLE

Members from the King's Daughters of Newark, Gambier, Mt. Vernon, Uca and Zanesville attended a meeting held on Tuesday in the Zanesville Y. M. C. A. rooms. It was a group meeting and Mrs. W. D. Fulton is president and Miss Ashbrook secretary, both of Newark, and these officers were held over and no election took place on Tuesday.

Contest Is Still Open

Contest coupons may be obtained up to 6 p. m., May 18. Solutions may be submitted from May 19 to 30. Each contestant may submit not less than 70 nor more than 350 coupons. All coupons must be filled according to the rules and each set of solutions must be accompanied by a large sheet containing the answers that are written upon the coupons. The Advocate recently contained one of these blank sheets. Another will appear before the contest closes. The Advocate has tried to answer every fair question that has been asked. If any contestant has failed to see his question answered, ask it again.

The Advocate is asked several times every day whether the contestant who submits 70 coupons will have as good a chance as one who submits a larger number. If one submits 70 coupons and gets every answer correct, nobody can beat him—unless another person with 70 correct out of 70 coupons has a more neatly prepared list of answers. It should be understood that each contestant is allowed to submit from one to five answers for each picture, not more than 5. If one taking advantage of this fact, submits 350 coupons and gets the right answer to all 70 pictures, he or she will rank higher than one who submits 70 coupons and gets 69 right. It should also be remembered that the first prize is given to the one who gets the greatest number of correct answers in the fewest number of coupons.

It stands to reason to believe that with 5 chances one has a better opportunity to get the right answer than with only one chance. Several people are now starting in the contest. They have until next Monday to obtain coupons and until May 30 to send their solutions. There are 130 prizes worth $2,346. More than one person in a family may send in solutions but no one person is allowed to send in more than one set of answers. The Query column appears on page 2.
